LIFE IN BABYLON

¹⁰ The astrologers answered the king, “There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks!

No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer.

¹¹ What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among humans.”

¹² This made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon.

¹³ So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.

¹⁴ When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact.

¹⁵ He asked the king's officer,
“Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?” Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.

¹⁶At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

17 Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

¹⁸ He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven
concerning this mystery,

so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 During the night the mystery
was revealed to Daniel in a vision.
Then Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰ and said:

“Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his.

²¹ He changes times and seasons; he deposes kings and raises up others.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

²² He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him.

²³ I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors: You have given me
wisdom and power,

you have made known to me what we asked of you, you have made known to us the dream of the king.”

Go with the flow on Sunday. With all this untamed energy swirling, you could find yourself in the middle of two warring parties.

Rather than pick sides, could you adopt a neutral stance? Trying to control this situation may simply be impossible. Playing “Switzerland” is the best strategy for de-escalating this conflict. Trust that the universe will eventually work things out!
