FOR THE WEARY SOUL

Matthew 6:1-4

“Be careful not to practice
your righteousness in front
of others to be seen by them.
If you do, you will have no
reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:1

So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets,
to be honored by others.

Matthew 6:2

Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full.

Matthew 6:2

But when you give to the
needy, do not let your left
hand know what your right
hand is doing, so that your
giving may be in secret.

Matthew 6:3

Then your Father, who sees
what is done in secret,
will reward you.”

Matthew 6:4

A stage with red curtains and a wooden floor. The curtains are pulled back, revealing a dark background with small white dots, possibly stars or distant galaxies. The floor is made of light-colored wooden planks.

“Hypocrites”

Do not seek to be seen by
others.

Know you are known by God.

Do not seek to be seen by others.

“Be careful not to practice
your righteousness in front
of others to be seen by them.
If you do, you will have no
reward from your Father in
heaven.

Matthew 6:1

So when you give to the needy,
do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by
others.

Matthew 6:2

HENRY FUHRMAN
EXECUTIVE PASTOR OF MINISTRIES

Know that you are known by God.

But when you give to the
needy, do not let your left
hand know what your right
hand is doing, so that your
giving may be in secret.

Matthew 6:3

Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward
you.”

Matthew 6:4

Do not seek to be seen by
others.

Know you are known by God.

“Sometimes the biggest sign that you are doing exactly what you should be doing is when no one but you and Jesus know you are doing it.”
