What is Worship?

The background of the slide is a photograph of a forest. The trees are mostly without leaves, showing their intricate branch structures. Sunlight is streaming through the canopy, creating a soft, golden-yellow glow and a bokeh effect of light spots. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

What is Worship?

Worship is the inner, authentic, Godward experience of the heart, engaged in both personally and corporately, ascribing infinite worth to God.

What is Worship?

The church is to be a dynamic worshipping community and this sometimes includes singing.

Acts 2:42-47 (Pg. 1092)

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

Acts 2:42-47 (Pg. 1092)

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Teaching Fellowship Communion Prayer

Worship includes ...

Teaching – Humbly placing ourselves under the teaching of the Bible, guided by the Holy Spirit for the purpose of spiritual growth and wisdom.

Worship includes ...

Fellowship – Committing ourselves to be in active, two-way relationships, with fellow Christian brothers and sisters, to challenge and build each other up.

Worship includes ...

Communion – Intentionally gathering with fellow believers for the express purpose of remembering the suffering and death of our Lord as God's means of bringing us the forgiveness of sins, through faith, while anticipating His second coming.

Worship includes ...

Prayer – Humbly acknowledging before God, through our petitions and requests, our complete dependence upon Him, our affirmation of his worth, and aligning our hearts with his divine purposes.
