A dramatic volcanic landscape featuring a dark, textured lava flow in the foreground and a bright, glowing lava lake in the background. A diagonal black line bisects the image from the top-left to the bottom-right. The scene is lit with a mix of warm orange and red tones from the lava and cooler blue and purple tones from the shadows and sky.

1 Corinthians 12:14-15 Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many. Now if the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.

16 And if the ear should say,
“Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12

17 If the whole body were an eye,
where would the sense of hearing be?
If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?

1 Corinthians 12

18 But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.

1 Corinthians 12

19 If they were all one part, where would the body be?

20 As it is, there are many parts, but one body.

22 On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,

1 Corinthians 12

23 and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty,

1 Corinthians 12

24 while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it,

“See what the whole body does when the foot is stepped on or the finger is pinched. How the eye looks stern, the nose draws up, the mouth cries out. How all the members are ready to rescue and help and none can leave the other so that it means not that the foot is stepped on or the finger is pinched but the entire body.”

Colossians 1:17-18

17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy.

Colossians 1:19-20

19 For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.
